

Privacy Policy

(LAST UPDATE: 05/2015)

VICORE attaches high importance to the protection of your personal data. We want to inform you how and why we collect and use such data. The present statement is adapted to the use and the features of this website. Changes or adjustment to the website can possibly entail changes to the privacy policy. Therefore, we recommend consulting this privacy policy regularly. By accepting our privacy policy you give your explicit consent to VICORE to register, process and use your personal data in accordance with the following provisions. We take necessary measures to ensure that the rules on data protection are respected by us and by external service providers.

This privacy statement applies exclusively to the services of VICORE. Please be aware that VICORE is not responsible for the privacy policy of other websites and sources.

1. Type of data

Personal data is any data that provides personal or factual information about one's person. Apart from the personal data collected in our online registration form, which are necessary to deliver the desired services, other data regarding the usage of our website, which may allow your identification (i.e. IP-address, date and time) is stored on our servers. VICORE guarantees that all personal data is processed in a strictly confidential manner and that the information will be deleted, when no longer needed.

2. Objective

Your data will only be used with your explicit consent when filling out the online registration form. VICORE will use your personal data exclusively to offer our services and will not store your data longer than legally allowed. Nevertheless, VICORE reserves the right – in accordance with the local legal provisions – to place your personal data at the disposal of our affiliated companies and/or our commercial partners who provide similar services, unless you object.

3. Cookies

In addition, we collect data that enables us to acquire a better insight in our clientele in order to improve our services. The website uses cookies (small text files stored in a user's browser, containing configuration information) to analyze how visitors use the site. The information generated by the cookie can be transferred to the secured servers of VICORE or a third party. We collect this data to gather information about the use of the website, to draft reports about the frequency and the number of visitors and to optimize our services.

4. Protection of minors

Persons under the age of 18 cannot benefit from our services, nor send us personal information without the consent of their parents or guardians. VICORE does not demand any personal information from minors. In case that we happen to receive personal data from minors, we will not store, process or use this data. Neither will we transfer such data to third persons on purpose.

5. Security measures

The data that we collect is stored on secured servers. VICORE takes all the necessary technical and operational precautions, which are regularly checked and updated, in order to prevent loss or abuse of data stored by us.

However, it is important to note that, because of the constitution of the internet, the above mentioned rules on data protection are not respected by other persons or institutions beyond our control. Especially unencrypted data – even when sent by e-mail – is vulnerable to being read by third parties. It is the responsibility of the user to protect the information he provides by encryption or other means.

6. Objections

VICORE communicates all information about your person that we stored and/or processed, when desired. If, in spite of all measures to register precise information, it occurs that we have collected incorrect information about you, we shall correct the data immediately at your request. Moreover, you can revoke at all times your consent to process and use your personal data, as well as object against the transferal of your personal data to third parties. Please contact us and we will immediately process your request.
